The Indigenous Tourism Association of Canada is proud to host the

NATIONAL INDIGENOUS TOURISM CONFERENCE

at the Grey Eagle Resort & Casino on Tsuut'ina Nation lands in Calgary, Alberta from February 8-10, 2022.

The theme of the National Indigenous Tourism Conference (NITC) is "Building Back Better". It is a call to action to operators, funding partners and industry supporters to join ITAC for a focused conversation on how the Indigenous tourism sector reunites and begins to rebuild from the impacts of COVID-19.

The conference will include topics related to recovery and resilience and will focus on how the sector can work together to rebuild as the pandemic subsides.

DAY 1: Tuesday, February 8th

INDIGENOUS TOURISM ASSOCIATION OF CANADA ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Day 1 starts with the ITAC Annual General Meeting which runs from 2:00 to 5:00pm.
All members, as well as the general public, are encouraged to attend.

WELCOME RECEPTION & CULINARY EVENT

The conference really kicks off at 6:00pm with a Welcome Reception featuring amazing cuisine from the Grey Eagle Resort & Casino—not to be missed!
